PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands, one Nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

DESCRIPTION OF THE FLAG

The Flag of the United States of America, has 13 horizontal stripes—alternating 7 red and 6 white—with the red stripes at top and bottom. The canton, or union of navy blue, occupies the upper left-hand quarter next to the staff and extends from the top to the lower edge of the fourth red stripe. The 50 stars in the blue field equal the number of states admitted officially to the Union. The stars are arranged, with one point up, in 9 horizontal rows. Rows 1, 3, 5, 7 and 9 have 6 stars each. Rows 2, 4, 6 and 8 have 5 stars each with stars centered diagonally between stars in the longer rows above and below.

COLORS IN THE FLAG

The red, white and blue colors and their arrangement in the Flag are often interpreted as expressing the very character of our nation. The Continental Congress of 1777 declared that the white stars in a field of blue shall represent a "new constellation." George Washington described the white in the Flag as symbolizing our desire for liberty—the land of the free. We say the red signifies the courage and sacrifices of the nation's defenders, and the blue has been likened to the loyalty and unity of our citizens.

STARS AND STATES

There is no legal or official designation of stars in the Flag as representing certain states. However, one can presume the first state admitted to the Union to be represented by the star in the upper left-hand corner and the latest state admitted to be the star in the lower right-hand corner. Then reading across from left to right, row by row, top to bottom, the order would be as follows:

Delaware (1787); Pennsylvania (1787); New Jersey (1787); Georgia (1788); Connecticut (1788); Massachusetts (1788).
Maryland (1788); South Carolina (1788); New Hampshire (1788); Virginia (1788); New York (1788).
North Carolina (1789); Rhode Island (1790); Vermont (1791); Kentucky (1792); Tennessee (1796); Ohio (1803).
Louisiana (1812); Indiana (1816); Mississippi (1817); Illinois (1818); Alabama (1819).
Maine (1820); Missouri (1821); Arkansas (1836); Michigan (1837); Florida (1845); Texas (1845).
Iowa (1846); Wisconsin (1848); California (1850); Minnesota (1858); Oregon (1859).
Kansas (1861); West Virginia (1863); Nevada (1864); Nebraska (1867); Colorado (1876); North Dakota (1889).
South Dakota (1889); Montana (1889); Washington (1889); Idaho (1890); Wyoming (1890).
Utah (1896); Oklahoma (1907); New Mexico (1912); Arizona (1912); Alaska (1959); Hawaii (1959).

"THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER"

O say, can you see—
By the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hail'd
At the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars,
Through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watch'd,
Were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare,
The bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night
That our Flag was still there,
O say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?
